Shooting in a Different Group

An athlete who is unable to shoot in the Group allotted to him/her may be permitted to shoot in another Group of a category for which he/she is eligible, subject to the following:

(a) Shooting in a later Group, after the Final of the athlete's category has been conducted: Once the Final of the category in which an athlete has entered has been conducted, that category shall stand closed for that athlete. If the athlete is thereafter permitted to shoot in a subsequent Group, such participation shall be deemed to constitute a voluntary change of category by the athlete. The athlete shall forfeit his/her eligibility and entitlement to the category originally entered, and his/her score shall be counted only in the category of the Group in which he/she actually shoots, and in any other category entered by him/her whose Final has not yet been conducted.
(For example – a Senior Masters athlete misses the Senior Masters Group and the Senior Masters Final is already conducted. If he/she is permitted to shoot in the Masters Group, his/her category shall change to Masters. If the Masters Final has also been conducted and he/she is permitted to shoot in the Men/Women Group, his/her category shall change to Men/Women.)

(b) Shooting in an earlier Group, before the Final of the athlete's category has been conducted: If an athlete is unable to shoot in the Group allotted to him/her and is permitted to shoot in an earlier Group, his/her category shall not change, since the Final of that category has not yet been conducted. The score shall continue to be counted in the category originally entered by him/her.
(For example – an athlete who has entered only in the Men category and is allotted the Men Group, if permitted to shoot earlier in the Masters Group, shall continue to be considered in the Men category, till the Men Final has not yet been conducted.)

(c) No claim shall thereafter be entertained for treating a score recorded under (a) above as having been recorded in the originally entered category, or for restoration of the category originally entered by the athlete.

(d) The NRAI President/Secretary General has the sole discretion to grant permission for change of Group.

Athletes desirous of participating in a different group must submit a written request to the NRAI on or before 7th November 2026.
